FOREWORD

Japanese legend tells us that the Shinto torii or gateway is the gateway to happiness and good fortune. One who passes through the torii takes with him two virtues, the virtue of loyalty, and the virtue of whole-hearted service.

We, as daughters of Peace, might well consider these two virtues, for they are ours as well. As we pass through the gates of Peace, we take with us loyalty, dedication, and most of all, maturity. We look upon life as a reality, and yet we strive toward our dreams and hopes, and one day they become a reality.

The Lotus staff of 1959 presents to you this view through the torii.

THE COLLEGE

DEDICATION

It is with deepest respect and admiration that we dedicate the 1959 Lorus to Dr. Charles C. Turner. Energetic, witty, friendly, and sympathetic are a few of the qualities which mark his life here at Peace. We have come to know him as a person who is ever willing to hear our individual problems, and to guide us in our decisions. His wise counselling, his deep concern and interest in each student, and above all, his dedication to his Christian calling make him beloved by every Peace girl.

"What wisdom can you find that is greater than kindness?"
—Rousseau.

TRIBUTE

Always cheerful, always conscious of the welfare of Peace and its student body, always willing to help—these are characteristic of Mr. David E. Warner, to whom the 1959 Lords pays tribute. His never-ending effort to uphold the ideals of Peace and that for which Peace stands is daily shown, and will long be remembered by all Peace girls.

To you, Mr. Warner, with heartfelt gratitude and devotion, we pay tribute.

“There is a kind of character in thy life That to the observer doth thy history Fully unfold.”—Shakespeare.

DR. WILLIAM C. PRESSLY

Dr. Pressly, President of Peace, is a source of inspiration and guidance to faculty and students alike. The cheerful, kindly atmosphere which surrounds him encourages students to enter his office and confide in him. His Christian life and his fairness in all matters make him a personification of the peace at Peace.

MRS. LILLIAN M. FOX

Her warm smile for each student she sees is only one characteristic of our gracious and charming social dean, Mrs. Fox, who smoothly wins the heart of every person she meets. She spends many long hours in her office working out the social activities of the college, but she is never too busy to help a student solve her individual problems.

RATION

MR. DAVID E. WARNER

Mr. Warner, Assistant to the President of Peace, is responsible for getting students to enroll at Peace. His cheerful smile and friendly disposition characterize his personality. His understanding nature makes him the friend of all Peace girls.

MISS FRANCES SUTER

It will always be with love and respect that we remember Miss Suter, who in her quiet way is continuously devoted to each individual girl who attends Peace. She has won our respect through her long hours of diligent work that has helped to make our days at Peace prosperous ones.

Class History

YESTERDAY we entered a formal, majestic building—alone and wondering what our lives as Peace ladies would be.

TODAY we leave our home of the past few years. So many things have happened that it would be impossible to record them all. However, we shall never forget:

... meeting Dr. Pressly, Mrs. Fox, Miss Suter, and the faculty.

(We were a bit timid about it until we talked with each of them and learned how friendly and interested in us they were.)

... the faculty recital and reception ... the party on front campus with each girl dressed as her favorite person ... all the tests that first week.

... the signing of the Honor Code and each girl's fear that she would forget the words and that her clammy hands would smear her name as she signed it.

... society Rush Parties ... boys from State College fraternities ... the excitement of deciding whether to become a Rho, Sig, or Pi.

... the election of class officers.

... the first serenade by the frat boys at State standing around the water fountain singing the college songs that we would come to know so well ... standing on the balconies feeling the excitement our mothers and older sisters told us we would feel.

... football games, Homecoming at State ... Carolina Germans ... Wake Forest dances ... Platter parties ... our Saturday night frat parties.

... Thanksgiving services in the Chapel ... sharing our blessings with others ... learning the joy of giving.

... going Christmas caroling ... presenting the Christmas Pageant ... buying presents for friends and little sisters ... the wonderful reception at the Presslys'.

... the thrill of going home for vacation ... the familiar "—more days till vacation" ... singing and laughter in the dining room ... planning for those wonderful days at home ... looking forward to returning to school.

... the Inter-Society Dance at the Woman's Club with the familiar receiving line ... angel hair and silver stars.

... Week-end of the Green with green top hats and shamrocks.

... billowing dresses of May Day attendants.

... dancing on the green before the May Court.

... the Junior-Senior Dance ... the wonderful music ... Old South theme and full dresses typifying Southern charm.

... Graduation night ... tears as our friends received their diplomas ... crying and laughing together ... promises to write as each girl left for vacation.

... September and back to school ... new girls looking up to us ... many new girls as homesick as we had been.

... days after dinner sitting outside singing and beginning to know the new girls ... the sun creeping behind the tall columns ... the stone benches under the trees ... friends sitting around us ... contentment and happiness.

... the winter months spent sitting in the Rec Room ... playing Bridge.

... Civic concerts at Memorial Auditorium.

... Chapel speakers who gave us new meaning to our lives ... formal recessional to "Lead On, O King Eternal."

... Springtime filled with afternoon dates ... going swimming ... trying to overcome cases of spring fever.

... soon almost time for Graduation ... our Graduation ... doubt in some faces as the time drew near ... marching down the aisle in our white dresses carrying the traditional red roses ... the excitement ... a hint of sadness ... another phase of our life that would be no more. ...

These things we hold somewhat sacred in our hearts; memories that will live forever, friends we will never forget. Have we changed since that YESTERDAY when we first walked into this strange building? The answer is yes. TODAY we are graduates of Peace College, TOMORROW—of that we do not know. However, as Epictetus of ancient Greece said, "Education is a possession which cannot be taken from men."

We have gained much; we cannot lose it.

ARTICLE I

TO DR. PRESSLY:

To you, we, the Senior Class of 1959, leave our deep appreciation for your helpful advice and Christian guidance. Time cannot erase the memory of your friendly smile and your love for all Peace girls.

ARTICLE II

TO MRS. FOX:

To you, we leave our heartfelt thanks for sharing our problems, and helping us to reach maturity. We hope that you will always have a place in your heart for us, as we have in ours for you, as we pass through the doors of Peace College.

ARTICLE III

TO THE FACULTY:

To you, we leave our gratitude for your personal interest in our work and in our personal lives. You have imparted to us your knowledge, your wisdom, and yourselves. It is our desire that we may prove worthy of your gifts. We can only say, thank you.

ARTICLE IV

TO THE JUNIOR CLASS:

To you, we leave our love for Peace and the happiness we found here. Take advantage of the wonderful opportunities which await you here, for they are worth much of the world's gold. We bequeath to you the traditions which once were ours, in hope that you will pass them on to those who follow you.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1

I, Lela Hodges, do leave my seat in the Smoker to Joellen Rhodes, and all the typing papers to Nancy Biggers.

SECTION 2

I, Carole Brown, being of sound body and a questionably sound mind, do hereby leave my 5:15 p.m. phone calls to Pat Wilson, along with the hope that they are from the right person.

SECTION 3

I, Annette Law, do leave my ability to sew a crooked seam in Home Ec. to Lynda Reece, who seems to have difficulty in accomplishing this great feat.

SECTION 4

I, Carole Kellam, leave the bell on 2nd East to Alice Johnson and Joyce Rodman in hopes that they will take care of it.

SECTION 5

I, Carol Barneycastle, do leave my memoirs entitled, "Adventures of a Quick-Change Artist," or "How to Hide Toreadors Under an Evening Dress" to Annie Jo Griffin. My love for Pi beach trips I leave to next year's Pi President.

SECTION 6

We, Faye Ozment and Jeanne Helms, do leave our State and Carolina annuals with regrets that we didn't charge a nickel every time somebody wanted to see them; thus we could have sufficient funds to install a couple of heads that don't leak.

SECTION 7

I, Rosemary Casha, do leave my week ends at Duke and Carolina to Beverly McGirt, who doesn't seem to care about either University.

SECTION 8

I, Priscilla Wheless, leave my love for Peace College to all the students of 1960.

SECTION 9

I, Ann Honeycutt, do leave the mess in the Rec Room to next year's Day Student President, and the whip that goes with the job.

SECTION 10

We, Pat Rhue and Liz Moore, do hereby leave our high positions in the Peace College Choir to Kaye Calhoun and Sara Jo Allen.

SECTION 11

I, Stuart Bennett, sorrowfully leave Lois Dees, and her ability for quick alibis when conflicting plans arise over a week end, and I shall greatly miss her.

SECTION 12

I, Becky Patrick, leave two dry tubes of paste and a handful of hopes to next year's Peace Times editor.

SECTION 13

I, Barbara Bruton, do hereby leave my faithful seat in Shorthand C to anyone who has the ability to keep up with Mrs. Booth.

SECTION 14

I, Martha Railey, leave my famous "I'll start tomorrow" diets and will power to Sylvia McDonald, who doesn't need them anyway.

SECTION 15

I, Toulia Bellios, do leave my weekly night watches to some other fortunate Hall Chairman on 4th Long Main, who needs a little sleep.

SECTION 16

I, Suzie Butler, do hereby leave my pretty curls to Stuart Bost, who is in desperate need of them.

SECTION 17

I, Sissy Carpenter, bequeath all the worries of the LOTUS to next year's Editor, and my crazy suite-mates to all unfortunate Preps on 3rd East. (They may be back.)

SECTION 18

I, Gail Lineback, leave all my call-downs to the next Hall Chairman on 3rd East in hopes that she will give them out sparingly.

SECTION 19

I, Carol McPhaul, leave my ability to squeeze toothpaste from the top of the tube to Carole Baars. I take everything else with me, including some things which aren't mine.

SECTION 20

I, Nina Spence, leave Margaret Saunders my empty mailbox in hopes that it won't be as empty for her as it has been this year.

SECTION 21

I, Bonita Opie, do leave all my bridge knowledge to Connie Pate.

SECTION 22

I, Mary Allen, do leave my illustrious grades to Margaret Kern, and my quiet hall, 2nd East, to those who like to "study."

SECTION 23

I, Cheryl Stowe, do leave my paintbrushes to Caroline Deaton, and my love for the Army to Linda Carole Kelly.

SECTION 24

We, Rita Thomas and Julia Theodore, do leave our illustrious knowledge and great knack and love for English to the three rising Juniors in Room 400, Beverly Howe, Anne Ogburn and Becky Leach, hoping that they will do better than we did - Pass it, girls!

SECTION 25

I, Emily Steele, do leave my 100 word take in shorthand to anyone who can take them; and one of the most wonderful years of my life to all the rising Seniors.

SECTION 26

I, Lindsay Britt, bequeath my completely worn-out pair of levis to my room-mate Linda Gail Pridgen; (She stole 'em!) I also leave Susan Tillis and 3rd East to the "worrying kind."

SECTION 27

I, Betsy Green, leave my palette and paint-spattered clothes to Sylvia McDonald.

SECTION 28

I, Hilda Cagle, do leave my slightly used Handbook with the underlined Guides for Living, and my little black notebook to next year's Chairman of the Board of Group Chairmen.

SECTION 29

I, Libby White, leave to my little sister, Mary Ann Wilson, my worn-out seat in the first pay telephone booth.

Class Prophecy

May, 1974

Dear Alma Mater,

Perhaps you are wondering why I should chance to write to you after all these years. It occurred to me that you might enjoy knowing what has happened to your adopted daughters of the Class of '59. We all grew to love you when we were at Peace, and it is only fair that you should know what has become of us.

It was only last week that my husband and I flew to New York to attend the Artists International Conference. Surely you remember Cheryl Stowe; she was guest speaker. Fran Dodd exhibited some of her prize-winning entries in the Gallery adjoining the auditorium.

While in New York, we attended the Broadway hit "My Poor Lady," starring Carole Brown, Jeanette Boykin, and Julia Theodore. In the lobby after the show, I saw Mary Allen, radio producer, and Nickie Durston, a model of years gone by. Patsy Geer was there interviewing for the Herald two members of the N. Y. Better Business Bureau, menthol tycoon, Gail Sutton, and automobile manufacturer, Carol Harwood Ford (she specializes in '72 black T-Birds).

Stopping by at a coffee shop after the show, we bumped into Martha Thompson and her husband. They were in town for the National Petunia Festival. Starlet, Marilyn Wiles, sat at a table opposite ours sipping grapefruit juice. Someone put a dime in the juke box, and the latest "pop" hit, "Red Baby" by Mary F. Martin, came blaring forth. It's banned in Russia.

Speaking of Russia, Carolyn Dalton, Nancy McLawhon, and Annette Law just returned from there. They were exchange secretaries from the United States, but they couldn't take Russian shorthand, and had to come home.

Nobel Peace Prize-winner, Faye Ozment, was in town; but we didn't see much of her because she was out on Long Island with Jeanne Helms and her family. Have you read Jeanne's book "How to Grin and Marry It"?

When we arrived at the hotel in our taxi, Janie Ragsdale Vanderbilt and Sadie Tillery Rockefeller were stepping from their private limousines. Gail Lineback Astor was apparently giving another of her famous society parties.

At breakfast the following morning, we saw Hilda Cagle eating a dehydrated egg. (She has given up her rolling pin.)

Our plane was to take off at nine o'clock; but we almost missed it by talking to Mickey Ray and Barbara Bruton, who have charge of the Reservations Office at La Guardia.

Once on the plane, we settled back to enjoy the flight home. The flying time was fifteen minutes. Ann Honeycutt, of all people, was returning on the same flight. It seems someone had failed to pay a bill, and had moved to Canada. Ann had been surprised to find it was Rita Thomas, who had just forgotten about the bill when she found that her husband needed a new set of teeth.

The plane landed on schedule, and my husband and I went forward to thank the pilot for the nice trip. "Carolyn Barber!" I exclaimed, "you . . . a lady pilot!" Carolyn turned to her co-pilot, Barbara Clifton, and they both laughed.

It was nine-thirty when I dropped J. R. off at the office and drove home. My two boys had a dentist appointment at ten and I would have to hurry to get there on time.

"Good morning, Mrs. Green, is Dr. Green in?" Betsy nodded because she was on the phone. Before her lay her latest artistic endeavor, a bicuspid still life.

Carole Kellam and Judy Allen were finding it difficult to keep their children occupied while waiting their turn for the dentist. Bonita Opie passed by the door and waved. She works for a pediatrician as his secretary and receptionist.

Next morning, I went shopping for my week's groceries at Bellios' Delicatessen. Just around the corner, I picked up my hens for dinner. "Southerland & Steele, Fine Cackling Hens" read the advertisement that Julia Vining was finishing on the door.

Spence's Optical Supply was offering tinted contact lenses at a discount, so I bought a pair from the manager, Betsy Reid.

The best beauty shop in town is owned by Anita Carter and Evelyn Hill. They offer a wonderful treatment for baldness.

Rosemary Casha is the top teacher at the local Arthur Murray Studio, and Martha Bailey operates a travel agency.

Some of the other girls of the Class of '59 are out of the country at the present.

Pat Rhue is in Switzerland, where she teaches in a children's orphanage.

Ann Beam is vacationing in China. (She loves the food, especially Egg Fu Yung.)

Carol Barneycastle and Priscilla Wheless (local bankers) are attending some international convention in Buenos Aires.

Carol McPhaul and Kitty Makepeace are in Hawaii with their military husbands and sun-burned children.

Susan Butler and Lindsay Britt are touring Europe in hopes that they may at last find a . . .

Juan Beth Mitchell is spending a few months on the French Riviera as a vacation from her modeling job.

Back in North Carolina again. Liz Moore is the only mechanic for the marvelous Univac. During the last few years, Univac has become more and more difficult to manipulate.

Sissy Carpenter is home on a leave of absence from her government job. She's the American Ambassador to Russia. Things are getting brighter with her help.

Connie Jo Wells wrote me last week that she had turned in her suggestion to the Advisory Committee for a new system of Hall Prayers.

This morning's paper carried a photograph by Jeanie Pace of the Kentucky Derby Winner.

Elizabeth White was the first lady jockey to win the Derby in ten years.

President of the Raleigh Garden Club, Betty Surles, came by my house this morning for coffee. While she was there, Lela Hodges, P.T.A. Chairman, came over to discuss plans for May Day.

Did you see Marjorie Pruitt's picture in Life? Imagine one of the girls from Peace becoming Mother of the Year.

Forsaking her teaching job at a local school, Becky Messer is now concentrating on the education of her own three children.

Stuart Bennett has a very fashionable gift shop in Portsmouth. I received some advertising matter from her this morning.

Presumably, I have given you a brief glimpse of what fifteen years has done to and with the Class of '59. Admittedly, this epistle lacks many details; but the girls themselves are the only ones that could authentically add those. I hope, Alma Mater, that your curiosity may be somewhat satisfied with this letter. In another decade or so, it will be my pleasure to send you Volume II.

Prophetically yours,
BECKY PATRICK.

ACTIVITIES

The Student Council

JEANNE HELMS

The Student Council is set up to give to students some responsibilities in activities under school supervision.

The purposes of the Student Council are to create opportunities for a better relationship between students and faculty, to keep the students abreast of the college activities, to provide for discussion questions of interest to the student body, to be in charge of student elections, and to impress upon the students the importance of maintaining standards of good citizenship among students.

P. S. C. A.

"... But I have chosen you—that you should go and bring forth fruit, that your fruit should abide."

Using this passage from St. John as a theme verse this year, the Peace Student Christian Association has tried to lead all Peace students to God through faith in Jesus Christ. The purpose of the P.S.C.A. has been carried out in Vesper services, Morning Watch, Hall and Parlor Prayers, Hut programs, and in special presentations at Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter.

EMILY STEELE

Presidents' Council

EVELYN HILL.

Consisting of all the presiding officers of each organized group at Peace, the Presidents' Council plans cultural, inspirational, and educational programs to be presented in Chapel throughout the year. This Council is also responsible for the work of the Social Committee, which sponsors various student activities such as picnics, parties, and which this year sponsored the "Week End of the Green."

Honor Court

The Honor Court is the highest judiciary body of Peace College. Under the direction of capable student leaders, the court has jurisdiction in violations of the Honor Code. Invested with the power of rendering decisions which include reprimand, probation, and suspension from school, this Court tries to create an awareness in the students of moral standards becoming a Peace student.

FAYE OZMENT

Phi Theta Kappa

BETSY GREEN

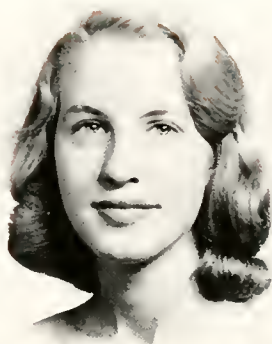

The Phi Theta Kappa Fraternity is a National Junior College Honorary Scholastic Society, which recognizes scholarship and leadership. Each year the Gamma Phi chapter at Peace elects new members upon the basis of scholastic achievement and leadership abilities.

Betsy Green, Evelyn Hill.

Alpha Pi Epsilon

Composed of students who have attained skill in secretarial achievements, Alpha Pi Epsilon, the honor society of the commercial department, encourages leadership and scholarship in commercial work. The major aim of this society is to aid the members in gaining a better knowledge of the opportunities and requirements of secretarial work.

CAROL BARNEYCASTLE

Standing: Martha Thompson, Becky Patrick, Marilyn Wiles, Fave Ozment, Ann Honeycutt. Seated: Carol Barneycastle.

The 1959 Lotus

SISSY CARPENTER
Lotus Editor

It is the desire of the Lotus staff that every student feel closer to the school through this pictorial view of our college life.

In years to come may it revive pleasant recollections of deeds and friends as you scan these pages and read this 1959 edition of your Lotus.

The 1959 Peace Times

BECKY PATRICK
Peace Times Editor

The Peace Times this year, under the advisorship of Miss Catherine Shaffer, has endeavored to mature into a comprehensive, newsworthy publication. Time and effort put forth by the staff have been instrumental in developing the paper, and in developing the student's understanding of journalism and journalistic writing.

Students with such qualities as dependability and originality will find a warm welcome on the staff. These qualities are necessary for competent coverage of campus news, its compilation, and its publication.

Back: Nancy Allison, Betsy Reid, Barbara Bruton, Margaret Leith, Mickey Ray, Ann Honeycutt, Carol Barneycastle, Becky Patrick. Front: Frances McCaskill, Sue Swain, Loula Bellios.

"So Swell the Columns Royal . . ."

Papyrus Club

BETSY GREEN

One of the oldest organizations at Peace is the Papyrus Club. Its purpose or goal is to encourage and develop the literary talent of interested students. These students study the fundamentals of good writing, and put these fundamentals to use by using their own creative ability.

Athletic Association

Striving for good sportsmanship is the chief purpose of the Peace Athletic Association. Composed of every girl who attends Peace, the Association, under the guidance of the Council, promotes intramurals and tournaments.

May Day activities are organized and presented under the direction of the Association. It also sponsors worthwhile projects throughout the year.

SUZIE BUTLER

Judy Allen, Billie Bowling, Mary Peterson, Betsy King, Linda Carole Kelly, Sherry McCoy, Kneeling: G. G. Monk, Suzie Butler, Carroll Barnes, Stuart Bost.

Resident Group Chairmen

Hilda Cagle, Toulia Bellios, Martha Railey, Betsy Reid, Elizabeth Ann Jones, Lindsay Britt, Nina Spence, Elizabeth Bailey, Judy Harden.

Non-Resident Group Chairmen

Carol Harwood, Mary Pittman, Becky Messer, Ann Honeycutt, Mickey Ray, Cheryl Stowe, Betsy Green, Carol Barneycastle, Barbara Bruton, Pat Rhue.

I. R. C.

The International Relations Club is made up of twenty-five girls who have been invited to join because of their interest in world affairs.

Interesting monthly meetings feature guest speakers and student programs, while the main projects of the club are the World University Service and Crusade for Freedom drives.

MARY ALLEN

Daughters and Granddaughters Club

The connecting link between the charm and dignity of past Peace girls and modern Peace girls is the Daughters and Granddaughters Club. Composed of all girls whose mothers or grandmothers were former Peace girls, the club strives to preserve the customs and traditions of Peace. Members act as hostesses to visiting alumnae and also serve at special teas.

CAROLE BROWN

Peace Dramateers

The Peace Dramateers is one of the youngest organizations on our campus. This club was organized for the purpose of increasing interest and providing experience in theatrical productions. The Dramateers conduct workshop meetings, feature outside speakers, produce at least one dramatic program yearly, and join with other school groups in presenting programs.

CAROLE BROWN

Art Club

CHERYL STOWE

The Art Club strives to give to its members a better understanding and appreciation of the beauty of art.

The Club meets monthly under the leadership of Miss Mabel Pugh. Through lectures, exhibits, and films the Club broadens every girl's knowledge of art. The members present an Art Scholarship Award as their annual project.

Home Economics Club

The Home Economics Club consists of students interested in interior decorating, home-making, and styling. Throughout the year the club has been privileged in having many guest speakers who are skilled in the various fields of decorating, hairstyling, fashions, and other phases of home economics. Dinner meetings at the S&W, picnics, and teas for the faculty were also part of the club's activities during the year.

CONNIE JO WELLS

Spanish Club

Organized only last year, the Spanish Club has contributed much to life at Peace College. Encouraging interested grade school students studying Spanish by having them present a Spanish program at a club meeting, showing films on Spanish-speaking countries, and presenting a Latin-American art exhibit are part of its many activities.

JEANIE PACE

THE SOCIETIES

Pi Theta Mu

CAROL BARNEYCASTLE

Rush Week, induction, and initiation—thus began the year 1958-1959 for the Pi society. Working with the other two social societies in planning and decorating for that memorable evening of the Intersociety Dance, the theme of which was Rhapsody in Blue, holding dinner meetings, and participating in the Intramural Sports programs were only a few of their varied activities during the year.

Rho Delta Chi

NINA SPENCE

Doughnuts 'n' coffee in the 'rec' room! Why get up early for Sunday morning breakfast when the Rhos have an eye for business prospects? Projects such as the doughnuts sales, and challenges such as bridge and bowling tournaments with the Taus, the Rhos brother fraternity, were included in an active program for the Rho Delta Chi society under the presidency of Nina Spence.

The Sigma Phi Kappa Society

SUZIE BUTLER

The Sigma Phi Kappa Society is the oldest society at Peace. It is dedicated to making everlasting friendships and to the upholding of the standards of Peace. The Sigs, as they are often called, have become a vital organization of the school.

Choir

PAT RHUE

This year, the choir, under the direction of Mr. Raymond F. Kreiner, has been one of the most active organizations on campus. This was especially true at Christmas when the choir sang on radio, T.V., around the Christmas tree on Capitol Square, and in the presentation of the annual Christmas concert at school.

During the spring, the choir sang for civic clubs in the city and also at an out-of-town church. The school year was brought to a climax at the choir's commencement concert.

Outstanding

SISSY CARPENTER

Though she is small of stature, her broad capacity for responsibility makes her one of our most capable leaders. As Editor of the Lotus, Sissy has proved her ability to guide others and to arouse enthusiasm in all her fellow students. Her academic merit is one to be proud of, and makes her a definite choice for Outstanding Senior.

MAY YOU REMEMBER PEACE,
AS IT REMEMBERS YOU!

MARTHA THOMPSON

Versatility, co-operativeness, sincerity—these make Martha an Outstanding Senior. How well she fulfills her office of Vice-President of the P.S.C.A. by planning our weekly Vesper programs! Her work is an expression of her character. We shall long remember her and what she has done for Peace.

Seniors

ANN HONEYCUTT

"Infinite riches in a small room." This is Ann Honeycutt, capable leader of the non-resident students. Scholarship, leadership, service, and character are among the riches possessed by Ann. She goes on her way calmly and serenely, saying little, accomplishing much. Ann will always be remembered for her vibrant personality; her achievements, great and small; and her outstanding service. The spirit of Peace personified - this is Ann Honeycutt.

EMILY STEELE

Truly we feel that Emily is an Outstanding Senior. Her leadership in executing the Presidency of the P.S.C.A. has been shown unceasingly. To meet her is to meet a true Peace personality - ever loyal, friendly, sincere, and above all, Christian. She is a shining example for Peace, and will long be remembered by those with whom she comes in contact.

BECKY PATRICK

Becky's versatility has been a distinct asset in her two years at Peace. As Editor of the Peace Times, she has affected everyone with her personality. Cheerfully she has worked and played, unconsciously encouraging all her friends and classmates in the many aspects of school life. Faculty and students may well depend on any work or project that Becky undertakes.

Truly, Becky deserves her position as one of the eight Outstanding Seniors.

"When a job's to be done she's always there;

Her energy and pep are beyond compare."

DIANNE SOUTHERLAND

Peace is proud to have Dianne as an Outstanding Senior. As President of the Senior Class, she has proved her ability to guide others and to accept responsibility. Even with the duties of her office and her class work, she is never too busy to lend a helping hand or a sympathetic ear to another student. She has the love and respect of every girl at Peace. Her reverence, sincerity, and unselfish devotion to us make her indeed an Outstanding Senior. For this, and much more, we shall always remember Dianne.

Seniors

SUZIE BUTLER

The many qualities that make Suzie an Outstanding Senior can never be put into a few words. She has shown remarkable leadership and outstanding diligence as President of the Sigma Phi Kappa Society and of the Athletic Association. Her sparkling personality and warm smile have won her many friends.

"A girl she seems of cheerful yesterdays and confident tomorrows."

FAYE OZMENT

Friendliness, kindness, and sincerity— all this, and more are expressed in Faye. As President of the Honor Court, she has proved her abilities many times and in many ways. Her sincere interest in her fellow students, her duties, and her work are the factors that truly make Faye an Outstanding Senior. She has won many friends, and has a place in the memory of every Peace girl.

"She is herself the collection of all good things."
